Civil War Threatened in Morocco

By TOM MASTERSON

RABAT, Morocco, (AP)—France's Moroccan protectorate split into two armed camps today over a threat to unseat the nationalist-minded Sultan, French armored troops patrolled in an effort to avert riots that might turn into civil war.

Reports from south Morocco said the powerful pro-French pasha of Marrakech, long a foe of Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef, told a gathering of 350 local chiefs and 2,000 other notables at his palace there yesterday that an important announcement would be made today.

The French Press Agency (AFP) reported it had learned on good authority the pasha, Thami El Glaoui, planned to proclaim a first cousin of the present Sultan, Moulay Mohammed Ben Arfa, as the protectorate's new titular ruler. Amid the gathering tension, U.S. Air Secretary Harold Talbot arrived here in the Moroccan capital last night to inspect three of the five huge American air bases being built in Morocco as key links in the defense chain against southern aggression.

In New York, 15 Arab and Asian nations accused France of backing a scheme to depose the Sultan. In telegrams to United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and Assembly President Lester Pearson, they asked the U. N. to take a hand in the dispute.

Veterans observers predicted a civil war if El Glaoui tries to unseat the Sultan. Each controls large fighting forces.

The Sultan was reported last night to have signed a series of French-proposed reform decrees, apparently in an effort to cement French protection. The nationalists previously had said the reforms did not go far enough.

Seven Negroes Believed to Have Drowned

HELENA, (AP)—Dragging parties were searching today for the bodies of seven Negroes believed to have drowned in separate, but related, accidents here last night.

Deputy Sheriff Clay Oliver said 13-year-old W. M. Guinn and Norah Bud Hatchett, 14, drowned yesterday afternoon while playing in a chute mouth on the river.

About 7:45 last night, a motorboat carrying five Negroes—including Guinn's brother Johnny—was capsized during searching operations. All five are believed to have drowned.

Ferry boat pilot Walter Tucker said he saw several of the boat occupants thrashing around and threw life preservers but was unable to effect a rescue.

Okinawa Braces for Hurricane

TOKYO (AP)—The great American base at Okinawa, directly in the path of a violent Pacific typhoon, was "just sitting tight" today as weather experts plotted the northward sweep of the howling storm.

A spokesman for the U. S. Ryukyus Command said that unless the typhoon changes course, it will come over Okinawa late tomorrow night. He added:

"We're just sitting tight to see which way it will go."

Okinawa, a key U. S. air base on the Far East, is under a condition three alert, which means preliminary precautions are being taken.

The typhoon, described by the Tokyo Weather Bureau as the greatest it has ever recorded, has winds of between 170 and 180 miles an hour at its center.

Bus Service Strike Threatened at L. R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The threat of a strike hangs over local bus service in Little Rock and North Little Rock.

A. F. Steele, vice president of the International Union of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, said yesterday drivers and mechanics "probably will strike unless a satisfactory agreement is reached" with the Capitol Transit Co.

The union's contract with the company expires Aug. 31 and negotiations for a new pact are under way.

Steele said the union would not be willing to submit differences to arbitration.

He said no strike plans had been made yet, but that a meeting of the drivers and mechanics had been called for next Tuesday.

Egypt Would Let West Use Suez Canal

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Hopes for a solution of the Anglo-Egyptian dispute over the Suez rose today after Vice Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser said Egypt is willing to make the giant base available to the West in an emergency.

Nasser denied earlier reports that the West could use the base, providing Egyptian sovereignty was honored. He insisted that Egypt should have the final say on when non-Egyptian troops should be admitted.

This point has been a major factor blocking agreement over evacuation of the 80,000 British troops now defending the 104-mile waterway.

Nasser denied earlier reports yesterday that Egypt had decided to break off current informal talks with Britain over the canal zone's future.

His statement last night was the first public expression by a responsible official that Egypt might allow the West back in the Suez under certain conditions. It was received with enthusiasm by British circles in Cairo, which had been worried by the earlier reports of a breakdown in the Anglo-Egyptian contacts.

However, it was not considered a commitment that Egypt would join the Middle East Defense Organizations (MEDO) proposed by the West. The Egyptians have indicated on Page Six

Increase in Cotton Trade Visioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—An increase in volume of world cotton trade from Aug. 1, 1953 to Aug. 1, 1954 was predicted today by the International Cotton Advisory Council.

The council said the reason is that there's been a reduction during the past year of nearly one million bales in the cotton stocks of importing nations.

But world stocks of cotton will continue plentiful, even allowing for a decline from the production of 28,400,000 bales in the free world during the 1952-53 season, the council said.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—There's been a change in the automobile business in Arkansas.

It's a buyers' market now. No more waiting lists, money under the table or "take it or leave it" propositions facing the man who wants to buy a new car. Instead, the dealers are doing all sorts of things to promote their sales.

An Associated Press survey of dealers in eight major Arkansas cities showed that generally new car sales are holding up fairly well but that used car sales have declined sharply.

Dealers said a buyers' market in new cars had evolved from stiffer competition, production catching up with demand, an overall economic readjustment in which money is being spent more cautiously.

One dealer estimated that 50 per cent of the used car lots operating in Greater Little Rock a year and a half ago have gone out of business. Another said business had fallen off 75 per cent in the capital city and "lots are closing up every day."

Dealers and finance companies alike say the business decline is a result of an Arkansas Supreme Court opinion restricting charges on time payment auto loans and other loans to the constitutional maximum of 10 per cent simple interest.

The finance companies say they can't make enough money on the 10 per cent simple rate to enable them to take risks and, therefore, are more selective in making loans. For instance, they won't finance old model used cars.

Bill Moxley of North Little Rock, who operates two retail used car lots and an auction for dealers, said business had fallen off 75 per cent since the court handed down the ruling in May, 1952.

"I've been here for 20 years," he said, "and business is the roughest I've ever seen it."

The general manager of a Little Rock car agency dealing in new and used cars said the new car sales had not been hurt by the financing situation but that "the used car business definitely is off all over the state."

Leaders Discuss School Problems

ARKADELPHIA (AP)—School problems ranging from segregation to "reading, writing and figuring" were posed to 400 members of the Arkansas Education Association here yesterday.

Farm, labor, newspaper, legislative, educational and parental representatives presented the problems at the opening session of a 3-day workshop. The remaining meetings will be devoted to discussing possible solutions.

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison, chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council's education committee, said segregation and finances need solving first. He called on the educators to find a new source of revenue, saying that a 5-mill 1953 appropriation for schools was taken from reserve funds.

Union Grove to Hear Rev. Thompson

The Rev. O. B. Thompson of Hope will preach at Union Grove Baptist Church, near Bleivins, Sunday, August 16, at both the 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. services. The public is invited.

Hurricane Hits Coast, Moans on Northward

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The season's first intruding hurricane smacked the North Carolina and Virginia coastal areas early today and moaned on north.

The big blow packed winds of 60 miles an hour or more near its center and spun gale winds of 40 or more to a distance of 140 miles. It was expected to hit southern New Jersey in the afternoon and have some effect on the Eastern Seaboard as far north as Massachusetts by nightfall.

To the north, coastal cities and beach resort were battering down against gale winds and abnormally high tides.

Damage in North Carolina and Virginia, forewarned of the sudden blow that cooked up in the South Atlantic, appeared comparatively light on the basis of early reports.

Two lives were reported lost. One was a North Carolinian blown from a pier near Wilmington, N.C., and swept out to sea. The other was a Norfolk County, Virginia, policeman, electrocuted by a downed power line.

There were many reports of injuries and narrow escapes. A Virginia couple seeking to escape the storm in their boat across a backwater, had to swim for it when the 22-foot craft swamped. They made it safely ashore.

Four Marines at the Cherry Point, N. C. Base — where 90 mile winds were the heaviest reported — were slightly hurt. And a couple fleeing from the Moorehead City yacht basin had a narrow escape when a concrete retaining wall collapsed. Flying blocks of masonry nicked their heels.

To the north, police at Ocean City were advising vacationers and others who could depart to leave the resort city in the face of the impending blow. Rains and high tides were flooding some coastal roads.

Farmers Vote on Wheat Proposal

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wheat farmers took off from crop work today to ballot in a nationwide referendum on a proposal that the federal government be allowed to restrict production and marketing of wheat next year.

The purpose of the proposal, made by Secretary of Agriculture Benson under terms of farm-aid law—is to prevent the production next year of a wheat crop that would add to a staggering surplus of the grain. The vote thus has important economic significance, and political overtones as well.

An affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of those voting is required to put the proposal into effect. Some 90,000 growers are eligible to vote in polling places established in all wheat-growing communities by local and state farmer committees.

Department officials arranged to tabulate the ballots tonight. They expected the results to be known shortly after midnight.

Secretary Benson and some other officials said they expected the proposal to win approval. But reports circulated yesterday among wheat traders that private polls showed a possibility quotas would be defeated.

Heavy selling on the Chicago Board of Trade forced wheat futures down yesterday to the lowest prices in more than six years, but by the close they had recovered to $1.81 to $1.82 a bushel, 1/4 to 3/4 of a cent lower than Wednesday's finish.

Similar controls may be invoked

Strikes Grip France, No End Sighted

PARIS (AP)—France settled down today to a bitter struggle between striking labor and economy-minded Premier Joseph Laniel. With millions already off their jobs, the walkouts spread to civilian workers in the nation's arsenals, army hospitals and quartermaster outfits.

Only 80,000 workers were involved in the 24-hour walkout at the military installations, but they dramatized the unions' determination not to stop until Laniel abandoned plans to trim government payrolls and up the retirement age for the civil service.

With no end in sight, the nation's railroads were still paralyzed, her gas and electricity service diminished and her communication system tied in knots.

702 Pound Melon Brought in by Bodcaw Farmer

The first really large melon of the season was brought in yesterday by Aubrey Goodman, farmer of near Bodcaw. The melon weighed 702 pounds and is absolutely without a blemish.

It was purchased by Mrs. Mack Stuart and will be shipped to John E. Bliss of Chillicothe, Ohio. The melon brought $15.

The Hope Chamber of Commerce has several requests for melons of 150 and over. The larger melons are not expected to start coming in until about the last of this month and in early September.

Ex-Blevins Man Given a Pardon

By GEORGE SITTERLEY

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri showed George Austin today that a state, too, can have a conscience.

Austin, 59, walked into Warden Ralph Eidson's office last May 27 and said he wanted to finish his seven-year sentence for robbery. He told the Warden he had been a fugitive for nearly 24 years, but Residents of Hope and Bleivins have previously reported that Austin lived in Hempstead for a few months. He was known in Hope by the name of Bill Dale.

his conscience had been riding him hard and he came back to "get right with the Lord."

Things like that don't happen every day in a penitentiary. So they watched this man closely.

One official said he was not the kind to "butter up" to the officers in an effort to get special privileges. Austin, they said, came back ready to face the five years still remaining on his sentence.

They put him in a cleaning detail. Every day he swept the halls and stairs of one cell building, doing his job well and minding his own business.

Everyone hoped he'd get a parole quickly.

Austin said some of the other prisoners couldn't understand why a man should return to complete his term after all that time. "They of the Nazarene member," said figured he had the rap beat. But Austin, now a devout Church member, he wanted to keep running — but he couldn't clear his conscience "for the Man upstairs."

"At first, he said, the convicts were scornful. Then they became convinced of his sincerity and respected him. He arranged to leave his prison clothing for a couple of convicts he believed had been "saved for the Lord."

And today's the day the state responds to the sort of conscience Austin displayed. Austin leaves the penitentiary on parole, free to back to his wandering as an itinerant photographer.

He and his wife will crank up their converted school bus — it has living quarters and a small studio built in — and continue their trips around the countryside.

Austin says they'll sell their pictures and live away the advice that while crime doesn't pay, even criminal errors can be forgiven.

If a Man Will Only Keep His Head He Can Escape a Lot of Work Around the House

By SAUL PETT

For Hal Boyle
NEW YORK, (AP)—If a man will only keep his head, he can escape a lot of work around the house.

The secret is to appear to be working on something important. And to meet the requirements of the perfect labor-saving device, you couldn't find anything better than burning out an old tree stump.

It seems important, seems like work and somehow seems like a job in which a husband and father shouldn't be disturbed. Above all, it is pleasant, relaxing and serene. Staring at the blue and white and yellow fingers of flame makes you feel like a philosopher. But you don't actually think much. You only think you're thinking.

As a way of getting rid of a big, unsightly stump, it is the slowest method possible. If you

Third Icebox Accident Brings Death to Two More in as Many Days, Total Now Is Eleven

HAVERHILL, Mass. (AP)—Two youngsters suffocated in a discarded ice box last night, bringing to 11 the number of children who perished in that manner throughout the country in two days.

The latest victims were Michael T. Rogers, 4, and Edward P. Ferguson, 3.

A search party found their bodies entombed in an abandoned ice box on a dump about 200 yards from the Haverhill homes of the youngsters' parents.

Four children died in Richmond, Va., in that manner yesterday and five youngsters died in Proctor, Ark., Wednesday night.

And just a year and one week ago, 4-year-old Gary Smith, locked himself in an ice box in Springfield, Vt. He lived, but is partially blind and an invalid.

About 200 policemen, firefighters and volunteers had searched for the Haverhill youngsters for about six hours before Lucien Duval, 33, an uncle of the Ferguson boy, lifted the ice box lid and saw the two unconscious forms.

Duval said tearfully: "I just got through reading about those other kids dying in ice boxes, so a companion and I decided to take a look."

Firefighters tried desperately, but in vain, to save the boys' lives by artificial respiration and the administration of oxygen.

Odus Gilbert Shoots Himself to Death

John Odus Gilbert, aged 40, Hempstead resident, shot himself to death with a 12-gauge shotgun early today at the home of a neighbor, Elmer Calhoun, in the Crossroads community.

Mr. Gilbert was alone at the Calhoun farm which he was taking care of in the absence of the family. Friends indicated he had been dependent for some time due, they believed, to the loss of a leg in an auto accident several years ago.

It definitely is suicide said Sheriff C. Cook who investigated in the absence of Coroner R. V. Herndon, Jr., whose ruling will be made late today.

Mr. Gilbert is survived by his mother, Mrs. E. F. Gilbert, a sister, Mrs. Cecil Weaver of Hope, four brothers, Frank, William and Carl Gilbert of Hope and Gerald Gilbert of Exeter, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at Old Liberty Sunday with Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home in charge.

Families of GIs Have a Small Hope

By United Press
The families of American fighting men reported to have died in Red prison camps had only a four-word phrase in grim government telegrams to nourish the hope that their loved ones were still alive. "Based on Communist reports," was the phrase, and the enemy information might prove unreliable in some cases.

At least some of the families of the first group of POWs reported to have perished in Communist prisons stubbornly clung to that belief.

"That's a slim hope," said Mrs. Joseph N. Petsche, sister of Pfc. Joseph Eckhart of Cleveland, whose name was on the first list of 121 men. "But we'll cling to it."

Eckhart's parents have died since he was listed as missing. If the report of his death is true, Mrs. Petsche said:

Local Youth to Attend Mich. Camp

Don Ray Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown of Spring Hill community, will represent Arkansas 4-H Club boys at Camp Minnowa in Michigan, August 17-30.

The camp scholarship was awarded Don Ray by the Danford Foundation because of his 4-H Club achievement and leadership in Arkansas and Hempstead County.

Camp Minnowa is one of the most outstanding Youth Leadership Training Camps in America. The camp offers opportunities of camping, fellowship, and training with outstanding people from all parts of the continent.

At the present time, Don Ray has five of his registered Jerseys in the process of conditioning and fitting for the Four States Fair at Texarkana, Third District Livestock Show at Hope, and the State Livestock Show at Little Rock.

These Jerseys are Don Ray's conflict in attending the camp but his mother will care for them while he is away.

Mr. Gilbert is survived by his mother, Mrs. E. F. Gilbert, a sister, Mrs. Cecil Weaver of Hope, four brothers, Frank, William and Carl Gilbert of Hope and Gerald Gilbert of Exeter, Calif.

U. S., Britain Split Over Seat for India

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Both the United States and Britain stood their ground today in a split over the proposed seating of India at the forthcoming Korean political conference.

India sources conceded, however, that the United States appeared to have the most support among the 10 countries trying to work out a joint proposal on the composition of the conference.

Britain and Canada both feel strongly that India should be among those chosen to represent the world organization at the parity. Most of the others were reported either indifferent or on the side of the United States.

The final decision, however, will be made by the 40-nation U. N. General Assembly, convening here Monday.

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., brought the split into the open last night, declaring that the U. N. should be represented only by countries which fought for it in Korea.

That would bar India, which sent only a medical unit.

Reds Asked If They Plan to Hold Prisoners

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The U. N. Command asked the Communists officially today if the Reds plan to hold back any Allied prisoners "sentenced to confinement for any reason" from the Korean War prisoner exchange.

Returning Allied POWs have said others were left behind, jailed on spurious charges. There has been no official report of the number.

The U. N. C. made its first official demand for an answer in a meeting of the Joint U. N.-Red Repatriation Commission at Panmunjom.

The Reds gave no immediate answer.

Col. Louis C. F. Ledersdorf, chief Allied representative, asked confirmation that the Reds would send back all prisoners who insist on repatriation.

As the commission met, 84 Americans and 322 other Allied captives rode eagerly from Red captivity to freedom at the exchange point here.

Both Reds and U. N. accused the other of holding back prisoners entitled to go home.

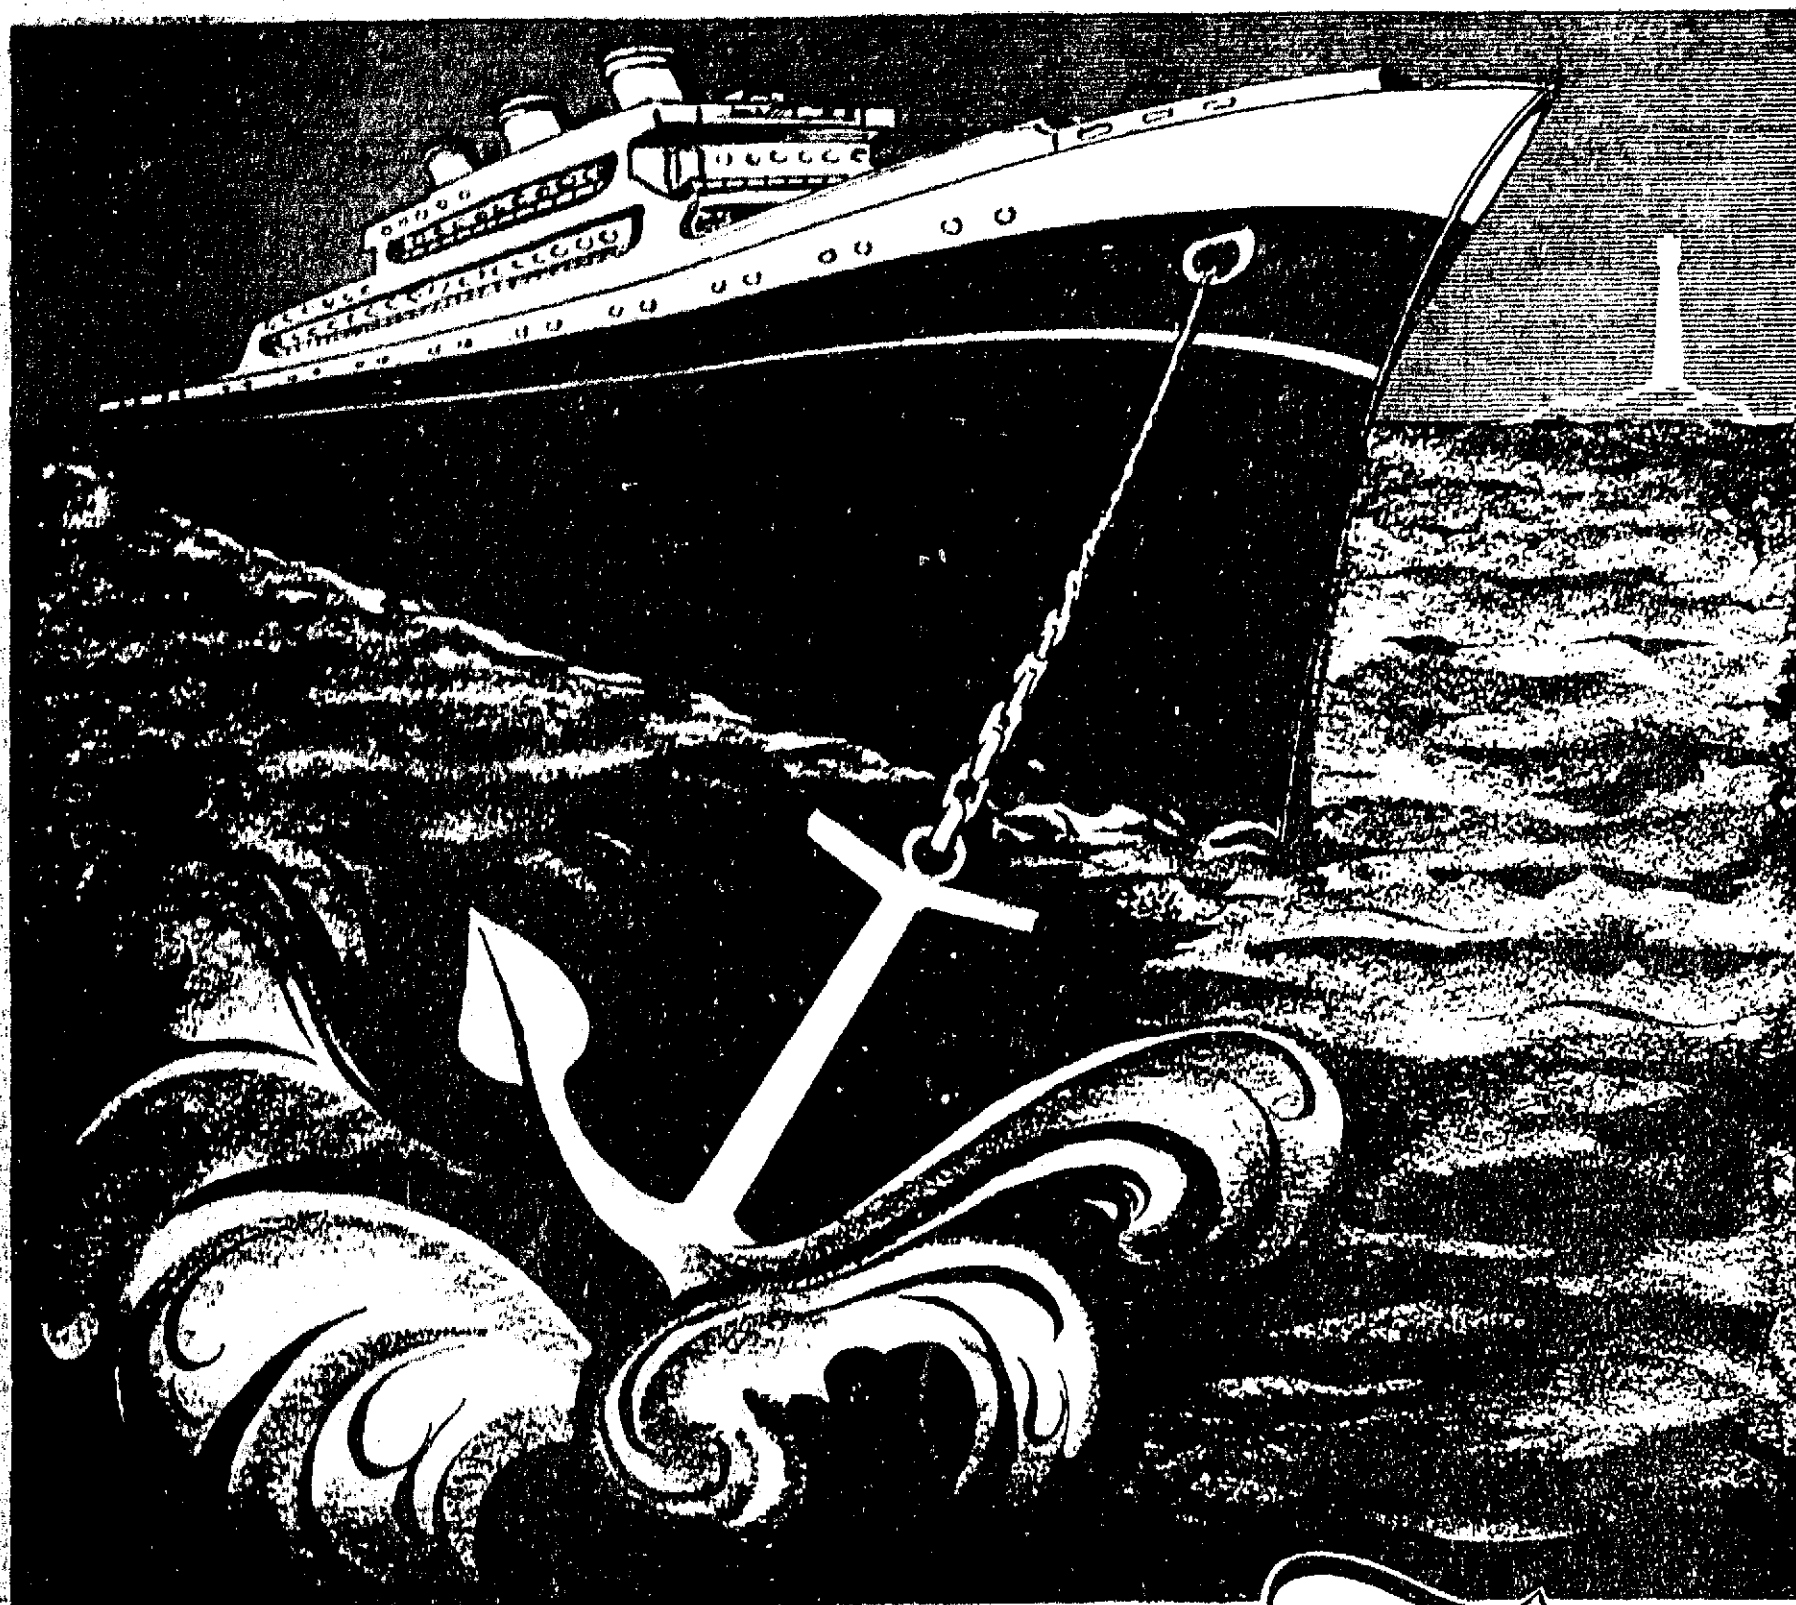

And on the Allied side, there was an apparent conflict between Korea and Washington sources whether all eligible Chinese POWs already had been freed.

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned the Reds to send back every Allied prisoner, and threatened to hold back some Communist POWs as a safeguard against any Red holdouts.

The Reds' Peiping radio in turn charged Dulles with "blackmail" and accused the Allies of "illegally holding out 120 Chinese

Clyde Harris of Tulsa, Okla., brother of Capt. Robert L. Harris, "I hope this is wrong. We are going to pray that it is wrong."

But other surviving parents and relatives accepted the tragic news with finality and said their sons were missing.

Mrs. John H. Kirkpatrick, mother of Capt. Harris, said she would not believe her son was dead until she saw his body.

More Tremors Shake Greek Islands

By ALLAN JACKS

PATRAL, Greece (AP) — Two more earth tremors shook the Ionian islands of Kefallonia, Ithaca and Zakynthos today. Landslides, fire and death continued to strike the survivors, already stricken by Modern Greece's worst earthquake disaster.

But the new tremors were of varying intensity and caused no deaths and little damage to the survivors, who were still being rescued.

There still was no accurate account of dead and injured. American observers said they believed a Greek government estimate of nearly 1,000 killed was too small.

Adm. Lord Mountbatten, Mediterranean commander of NATO naval forces, flew over Zakynthos, the main city on the island of the same name, and reported by radio that he saw "a large part of a cliff fall in the sea."

Planes still raged over the city of 25,000 population, he reported, and all oil and gasoline storage drums were exploding. He added that two of three modern buildings in Zakynthos were seriously damaged, the rest of the town is in even a worse condition than Argostoli. It has been hit by fire in addition to receiving serious earthquake damage.

British and Greek sailors formed two fighting parties. British navy planes dropped relief supplies along the coast. The firefighters, Mountbatten said, were menaced by exploding grenades. The fishermen kept in their cottages.

Argostoli, naval base and chief center of Kefallonia, was a ruined city whose silence was broken only by cries of the injured and the crunch of stretcher-bearers' shoes. A U. S. Navy dispatch reported.

A Navy reconnaissance party landed. "As we moved through the town the horror and completeness of the disaster struck us. We covered every street in the ruined town and saw not one complete building still standing. x x Dead animals were floating along the seashore where they had been dazed to move, though most had flung by a tremendous quake. In a few places bodies were still the ocean for evacuation."

AFL Would Welcome Back Carpenters

CHICAGO, ILL. — AFL leaders today urged a welcome back for the expelled carpenters union but said nothing would be done to bring them back into the federation fold.

Mrs. John H. Kirkpatrick, mother of Capt. Harris, said she would not believe her son was dead until she saw his body.

The 122,000-member carpenters union, led by William Hutchinson and his son, Maurice, pulled out of the AFL Wednesday in protest against the AFL's refusing an agreement with the CIO to stop taking each other's membership.

The Hutchinsons objected to the fact, they said, because the AFL had failed to stop family quarrels first between rival unions within the AFL itself.

Deaffiliation of subordinated, city and other AFL groups from the carpenters may be a heavy blow to the second union because it will break its ties with other AFL building crafts in bargaining and other projects.

The AFL Executive Council, which has been meeting here all week, plans to adjourn its quarterly session today. The council named Dave Beck, 54-year-old president of the teamsters union, as an AFL vice president and council member to succeed William Hutchinson.

Smith, 21, has been in the Army some five years and was a prisoner about 32 months, she said.

At Waldron, 16-year-old Verla Richmond said "it's the most wonderful thing that's ever happened," when she heard that her brother had been released.

She said Richmond's wife, now lives in Tulsa, Tex., but probably would come to Arkansas for her husband's homecoming. Richmond, 22, was taken prisoner May 18, 1951.

Staub's father was in Little Rock, to be with another son, Bill, in a capital city hospital. The Associated Press contacted a third son, Harrison Staub of London, who rushed to tell his father the news.

"We are all happy," the father said. He added that the son in the hospital was getting along fine, "but this'll pull him out of it in a hurry."

Staub was captured April 19, 1951.

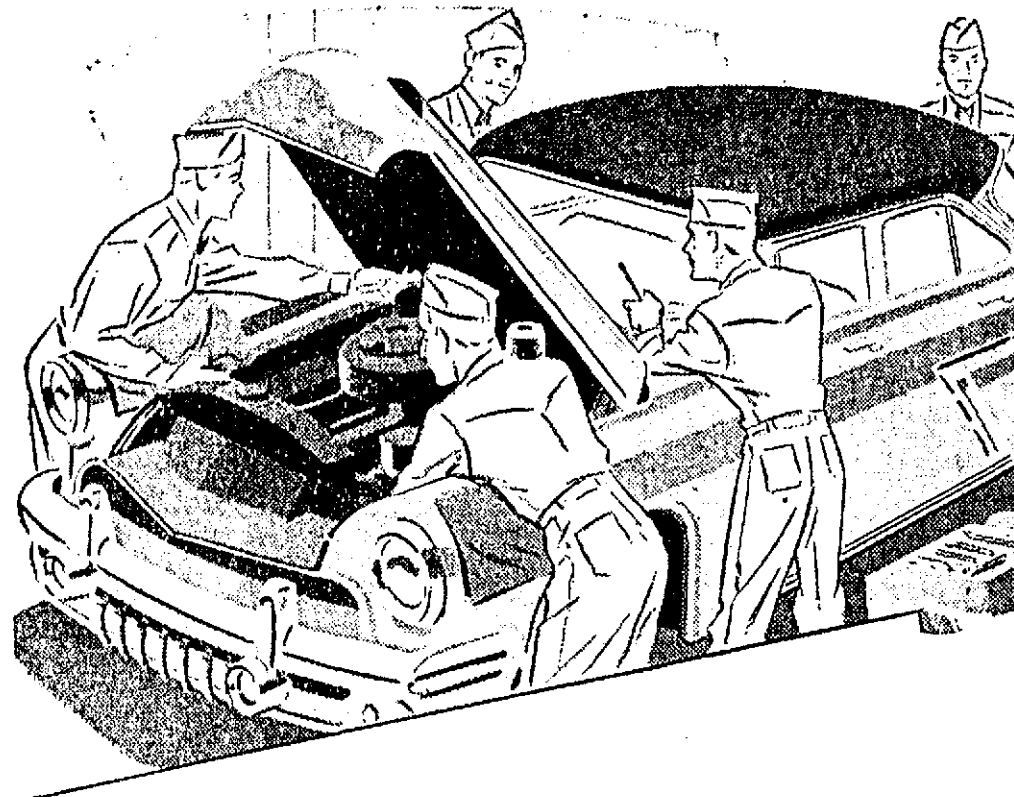

Some survivors were still sitting outside their razed homes. Too dazed to move, though most had flung by a tremendous quake. In a few places bodies were still the ocean for evacuation."
